

Head of School Search Finalist Schedules

Hello everyone,

We've been working hard on the scheduling for our finalists' visits. I'm pleased to now share with you the schedules for those interview days. You will find that we have a couple of opportunities for the parents to meet with the finalists, and we have intentionally scheduled those at different times in order to maximize parent involvement.

As many of you know, the COVID cases are rising exponentially! Thus, I would like to state that although we are currently planning to move forward with the schedule as planned in person, it is possible that you will receive another message from me indicating a need to pivot to a hybrid interview. I met with the consultants earlier today about this very issue, and fortunately, they have experience pulling off hybrid finalists' interviews. If we must pivot, I will be sure to expeditiously communicate any changes.

Finally, I would like to let you know that I will be sending out the names and bios of the candidates a couple of days before their visit so you can celebrate their diverse and accomplished backgrounds! As always, if you have any questions, please reach out at headsearch@roycemoreschool.org.

I send each of you my sincerest wishes for a HEALTHY and joyous winter break!

Happy Holidays,
